Online Directory of Run-Off Service Providers

Media Pack 2009

What is the Directory of Run-Off Service Providers?

- The Directory of Run-off Service Providers is published by Run Off & Restructuring magazine and can be found online at: www.runoffandrestructuring.com/directory
It offers run-off re/insurance service providers an ideal platform to showcase their particular skills and strengths in this increasingly competitive market.
- In addition to an A-Z listing of companies the Directory is also searchable by category of service provided.
- Each individual entry has space for details including:
  - Company name and logo
  - Contact names and emails, phone numbers and office location(s)
  - Areas of specialisation
  - Description of staff members, eg. numbers, expertise and experience of key personnel
  - Details of existing run-off clients (optional)The length of each entry can be up to 400 words and there is an opportunity to update the online entry every quarter (March, June, September and December)
- The Directory is also published in hard copy form each December and is mailed out with the Winter issue of Run Off & Restructuring magazine as well as being distributed at relevant seminars and conferences.
- Run Off and Restructuring is a quarterly magazine for insurance run-off professionals and is the only magazine dedicated exclusively to the insurance run-off sector.

The Association of Insurance and Reinsurance Service Providers (AIRSP) is a non-profit making organisation established in 2003 to unite professional service providers offering high quality work to the insurance and reinsurance industry in both the live and run-off markets. By outsourcing to its members clients can be assured of a professional approach at every level.

Covering an extensive range of services AIRSP is a world wide organisation represented in the UK, Europe, the US, Australia and the Far East. Although membership is normally by recommendation from an existing member it can be applied for via the website and acceptance is subject to the applicant meeting the high levels of professionalism demanded by the association.

By arranging a variety of marketing events throughout the year the association enables its members to establish and maintain business relationships with fellow members, other service providers and potential clients.

The association encourages collaborative working practices among its members which enhances the flexibility of services available to clients. This spirit of cooperation enables workloads to be shared to optimise expertise and for the transfer of projects in the event of a conflict of interest.

Now celebrating its tenth anniversary, ARC is the UK trade body for insurance and reinsurance legacy management professionals. ARC is recognised as the voice of the legacy management sector by a wide range of government and market bodies including the UK Financial Services Authority (FSA) and the Department of Work and Pensions.

ARC activities range from industry consultation with government to promotion of the sector's skills and expertise. In particular, the ARC Academy provides top quality, competitively priced, training that is fully accredited by the Chartered Insurance Institute, one of the world's premier professional training organisations for the general insurance industry. More recently, ARC has also established its own annual awards designed to promote and recognise excellence in legacy management.
